100% of your contribution benefits The Imagine Bus Project

Now more than ever before underserved communities depend on The Imagine Bus Project to fulfill the need of visual arts instruction. Please know that your participation will expand the opportunities for K-12 underserved children and youth to build art-making skills and an appreciation for art, learn technology and design software, develop a deeper understanding in other subject areas, and develop confidence and a sense of achievement by visually expressing thoughts and ideas.

This is critical in an environment where very few public schools and after school programs offer art classes due to lack of funding and resources.

The Imagine Bus Project (TIBP) is an arts education organization that addresses the lack of visual arts programming in kindergarten through 12th grade by providing arts instruction to underserved children and youth in partnership with local school districts, juvenile detention centers, after school programs and community based youth organizations throughout the Bay Area.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

Please note the deadline for recognition in Art is in the Air printed materials is August 25, 2011.
